Seats at Walton Dinner.

The seating committee of the Walton dinner committee will meet Tuesday evening at Feitman's. Coney Island, to assign seats at the various tables. As the dinner is to be held Thursday, August 9, it is absolutely necessary for the seating committee to have the names of subarribers on or before Tuesday.

All members or non-members of the United Anglers League, who have forwarded $1.15 to Robert Friedenberg. 22 West Fifty-sixth street, Manhattan, or who may do so before Tuesday will have seats reserved for them. Those who prefer paying their subscription when they come to the dinner should send a postal card to Mr. Friedenberg stating that they will attend and requesting reservation of seats for them.

This will secure printing of their names on seating schedule. The committee must knew how many diners will attend as it is necessary beforehand to know the number to be provided for.

There is no reason why there should not be a large contingent of women diners Fighermen, treat your wives, elseters and other fellows slaters to a shore dinner. They will enjoy the speeches, the music, the singing, It's going to be a great

New York, Aug. 3. Weaks and Croskers in Sandy Hook Bay.

Weakfish and croskers are now plentiful in Sandy Hook Bay, at the bell budy and off the gas budys, at the bell budy and off the gas budys, Now that the fish are in there is a chance for some good sport. Early morning is good and again about 7 or 8 o'clock at night.

There are fishermen in these waters using nets. Is there no law to stop them? If there are laws the game warden of Atlantic Highlands, N. J., must be asleep. Please wake him up.

FINAL GREENHUT REPORT.

Bankruptcy Proceedings Are Virtually Wound Up.

A meeting of creditors of the J. B. Greenhut Company was called yesterday at the office of Peter B. Olney, refere in hundred and short and structures and also in trimmings. The bankruptcy, at 88 William street, for the purpose of notifying them that the trustees, Walter G. Noyes, William A. Marble and Alfred A. Cook, had filed their final report and account. The trustees asked to be disclarged. No objection was raised.

This means that practically the last step in the bankruptcy proceedings, of the Greenhut company has been taken, as all the creditors who had filed claims were reported to have been satisfied on a percentage basis.
